

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Chicagoans will have tonight for the first time in many years an opportunity to witness a game of intercollegiate hockey. The event will be between the University of Wisconsin and Northwestern and it will be staged at the White City ice rink.

Washington. — Sec'y Daniels expects to start work in spring erecting plant in which government will make its own shells for navy guns.

New York.—H. C. Frick has purchased for $200,000 four Bouches paintings from estate of E. P. Bacon.